New Jersey Governor Favors Commission Government for Cities, the Initiative, Referendum and Recall—Urges Legislature to Progressive Action.

By Publishers' Press.

Trenton, N. J., April 11.—In a special message to the Legislature today Governor Wilson urged the passage of a law giving cities the commission form of government when they desire it, and providing the initiative, referendum and recall.

Governor Wilson said in concluding his message that the people of New Jersey would be greatly disappointed if this session of the Legislature failed to make an alignment with progressive ideas and to give the people legislation along progressive lines.

NEGROES NOT WANTED IN CANADIAN COUNTRY

Immigrants Pouring In- to Dominion, But Negroes Barred by Government.

By Publishers' Press.

Ottawa, Canada, April 11.—The Canadian government's encouragement to the inhabitants of Great Britain to take free homesteads in the western section of the Dominion is being answered by a rush of immigrants. Today 250 landed at St. John's. This makes the record-breaking number of 7,500 persons in three days.

The authorities of Manitoba, who recently turned back 500 negroes emigrating to that province from Oklahoma, have been sustained by the government. It is said in explanation of the refusal to allow the negroes to settle in Canada that the land is being held for white people. Apparently, the government policy will be to make permanent the restrictions forbidding negroes to enter the lands of the country for settlement.

WANT CONVICTS FOR RAILROAD GRADING

Washington Men Seek State's Assistance in Extending Mattamuskeet Line—Speaks Settles Down to Prison Life—Sanford Will Have New Hotel.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, April 11.—Governor Kitchin and the Council of State and a number of the business men of Washington, N. C., interested in the extension of the Mattamuskeet railroad to that city from Belhaven, to which point it is graded from Fairview, held a conference today relative to the work of "grading" the Belhaven-Washington end of the line with convict labor. A squad of convicts has just completed the grading of the Fairfield-Belhaven main line and the State authorities are on the eve of removing the squad to other work and the Washington interests are urging that they be put at once on the grading of their end of the road.

However, an iron clad condition is that before the State does grading in exchange for the stock of the road there must be not only provision of all supplies and maintenance of the work but that the terminals at Washington for the railroad must be secured through actual signed and sealed options. This has not yet been closed up, the plea from Washington being that they have this deal near enough perfected. However, the State officers are insisting on perfection of the terminal deals and this is promised within the next three days. Here for the conference were A. M. Dumay, J. L. Mayor, Dr. Carter, F. C. Kruger and Engineer Maxwell.

Speaks Taking Life Easy.

Moses Speaks the remarkable High Point dual murderer, sentenced to 30 years in the penitentiary and committed to the prison yesterday, has settled down, the prison authorities say, to an easy-going and contented prison existence with no manifestations of insanity since he does not have opportunity to talk of his imagined wrongs in deprivation of money and property.

New Basis For Insurance Agents.

Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young says that the new commission plan for agents of fire insurance companies scaled on the classes of risks, ranging from 15 to 25 per cent, for the highest—have been in operation in the northern and eastern sections of the country for several months and are just now being applied to the southeastern territory. Some of the agents seem to prefer the old 15 per cent. flat basis of commissions, but the indications he thinks are that as soon as they fully understand the new scale and get to pushing for standard risks all will be pleased with the new basis.

Drayman Injured.

A negro drayman for the Caraleigh cotton mills had both his legs broken today while attempting to haul from the Southern freight depot to the mills an immense pully that wobbled on the dray and caught him under it. There were other painful injuries. He will recover.

New Hotel For Sanford.

Some weeks ago there was the sensational suicide of Proprietor Powell of The Sanford Inn in the Union depot here after he had attempted the lives of D. E. McIver and C. H. Smith because he understood that they were promoting the erection of a new hotel at Sanford that would compete with him. Today the charter was granted for this hotel. It is The Wilson Hotel Company. The capital is $10,000 and the incorporators are E. P. Makepeace, D. E. Wilson and C. H. Smith.

Looking For Actuary.

Commissioners of Insurance J. R. Young expects to find a suitable man to take the place of Actuary R. B. Koit by June 1, when Mr. Koit goes to Greensboro with the Security Life and Annuity Company. The position requires special equipment in insurance actuary service, hence difficulty he is encountering in his search for a man for the place.

NAPIER GIVEN SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Man Who Used Mails to Defraud Convicted on Evidence of His Partner, Duke, Who Was Roundly Scored by Judge Boyd in Passing Sentence on Napier.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, April 11.—Deputy Marshal R. L. Blaylock returned last night from Charlotte, having in custody James W. Napier, who was yesterday sentenced to serve six months in jail or serve two months in jail and pay a fine of $500 by Judge Boyd. Napier has not yet decided which sentence he will accept. Meantime he will remain in Guilford jail, having expressed his preference of remaining in the Guilford jail to that of Mecklenburg.

The following regarding the case is taken from yesterday's Charlotte Chronicle:

"J. W. Napier, the white man found guilty of using the mails of the United States for fraudulent purposes, was sentenced by Judge James E. Boyd of the federal court at 1 o'clock today. Napier was given the choice of six months in the federal prison or a fine of $500 and two months in prison.

"Duke is the guilty man," remarked Judge Boyd, as he rendered his verdict, "and that is why my sentence is as light as it is. Besides, this case should have been brought in South Carolina, where the alleged fraud was committed, and not in this state."

"Assistant District Attorney Cole stated to Judge Boyd that had it not been for Duke's evidence that the case of the government could not have been presented. He made it clear to His Honor that Duke had offered his evidence, that it had not been forced from him by promise or bribe. As Duke turned State's evidence and sent Napier to the federal prison, the case against him was not pressed.

"Napier will consult his attorneys before deciding which of the sentences he will take. He was in the court room when the judge passed sentence on the case.

"There has been no case tried in the local federal court room during the past number of years, which has been more fascinating in detail than that which ended in Napier's sentence this morning. Duke and Napier were partners in a scheme to defraud a New York jewelry firm and a Salem, Mass., jewelry firm out of diamonds. They used the mails of the United States to further their purposes, and finally secured the rings through the Southern Express Company. Both the express company and the government were fighting the case for all their ability."

Napier and Duke, it will be remembered, were tried last fall on the charge of violating the white slave laws, the court ordering a verdict of not guilty after several days had been consumed in hearing the evidence.

In the case against J. C. Masters and T. H. Sibley, promoters of the Albemarle Development Company, in which the defendants were charged with using the mails to defraud, the court instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, holding that the act of Congress under which they were indicted was not effective when the alleged act was committed.

Puzzle Expert Dead.

New York, April 11.—Sam L. Lloyd, the well-known puzzle expert, died today at his home in Brooklyn from a stroke of apoplexy. He was 70 years of age.

For many years Mr. Lloyd had been known throughout the country for his popular problems for the amusement of newspaper and magazine readers. In his unique calling he had built up an estimated fortune of more than $1,000,000.

Scheduled For Electric Chair.

Columbus, O., April 11.—Unless Governor Harmon interferes Clelia Williams, of Canton, who killed her wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Koontz, will die in the electric chair on April 21. The supreme court today refused to allow him to file a petition in error before it, to have the death sentence imposed upon him by the Stark county courts set aside.

RAINEY

Wants to Investigate Wickersham.

Illinois Congressman Believes Attorney General Has Connections Which Disqualify for Cabinet Position.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 11.—Congressman Rainey of Illinois, who is acquiring a reputation as the "Great Investigator" of that body, today offered a resolution asking for an inquiry into the question as to whether or not Attorney General Wickersham has employment outside his office which disqualifies him for service in President Taft's cabinet.

Congressman Rainey also asks an investigation of the cases begun by the government some time ago under the anti-trust laws, which cases were subsequently dropped by the government. Mr. Rainey wants to know, and wants the country to know, why the proceedings ceased.

PREPARATIONS FOR DEBATE BEING MADE

Wake Forest and Davidson Contest for Cup Next Monday Night—Music by Band.

Secretary C. C. McLean, of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday received a message from the managers of the debating contest to be pulled off in this city next Monday night between Wake Forest and Davidson asking that a band be secured for the occasion. This debate is for the purpose of deciding on the ownership of a loving cup offered by the Chamber of Commerce to the institution winning two out of a series of three debates. Each institution has held the cup for one year and the winner of Monday night's contest will hold the cup permanently.

The debate will be largely attended, many coming here from all over the State for the occasion.

The debate will occur in the Grand Opera House and the Proximity band will furnish music for the occasion.

MEXICAN MINISTER CONFIDENT OF PEACE

By Publishers' Press.

Mexico, April 11.—That definite peace news will come out of Chihuahua soon, is the belief of the Mexican cabinet, according to one of the ministers today.

The cabinet member said: "I have felt confident of peace during the past week, but today I am sure that an arrangement will soon be made public that will prove my belief." Following the conciliatory policy of the administration twenty political prisoners were released from the penitentiary today and it is predicted that others will soon receive amnesty.

"It's a wonderful costume, old chap. Why don't they give you the prize?" "Said I'd got too much to carry already!"—London Opinion.

AMERICAN WOMEN AND CHILDREN HELD CAPTIVE BY INSURRECTOS IN LOWER CALIFORNIA--INTERVENTION ASKED

By Publishers' Press.

San Diego, Cal., April 11.—Strong appeals from relatives were wired Secretary Knox today in regard to a number of women and children held in the barracks at Alamo, Lower California, by Mexican filibusters. Intervention is asked in behalf of these persons, who are alleged to be in captivity and are said to be daily subjected to insults and mistreatment. The matter has also been called to the attention of Senator Perkins, chairman of the Naval Committee.

Relatives of the captives in San Diego are much exercised over their condition, as it is said there is sickness among the number and it is probable that some have died. Secretary Knox is urged to take immediate steps for the relief of the beleaguered Americans.

The Telegram is entered at the Post office in Greensboro, North Carolina, for transmission through the mails as Second Class Matter.

Greensboro and Wilmington will have to travel the commission government road alone in North Carolina.

The whitewash used on Lorimer was of very poor quality. It came off quickly.

Mr. Bryan always been a thorn in the flesh of some of the brethren, and doubtless will continue to be as long as he lives.

Perhaps the King of England has attached Sandow to his staff of retainers for the purpose of protecting his majesty from the English suffragettes.

Democrats should stand together," says the Raleigh News and Observer. There are so many kinds of Democrats nowadays, however, that it is somewhat difficult for all of them to affiliate.

Australia is the latest big country to express fear of the little brown men of the little country of Japan. Doubtless the Japs thoroughly enjoy the consternation they are creating throughout a large section of the world.

The Wilmington Dispatch says that fifteen divorce cases are docketed in court in that city. Wilmington is trying to earn a reputation which will divide the divorce business with Nevada.

The Wilmington Dispatch has sinned irretrievably. Says that Dr. Bland's election as Mayor of Charlotte was not a painless performance for the voters. Dr. Bland is a dentist, you know.

Perhaps the railroads can ultimately be convinced that their business is railroading and not other lines of business or politics. When that time arrives there will be nothing but good feeling between the railroads and reasonable people who are not engaged in railroading.

Wilmington Dispatch has confused Greensboro with Charlotte, which is remarkable, as Greensboro could be dropped down and lost in one of Charlotte's great cotton plantations. However, for the information of the Dispatch will say that the organizers for the secret order, the Owls, were not arrested and fined in this city but in Charlotte.

THERE WAS A REASON.

Says' The Greensboro Telegram: "It has been sixteen years since the Democrats had a speaker of the house, and it is quite probable that the average citizen, Democrat or Republican, has forgotten the name of the Democratic speaker who preceded Champ Clark." The editor of The Telegram must be an average citizen. The name of the speaker is conspicuously absent in The Telegram's squib.—Winston-Salem Journal.

The name of the last Democratic Speaker of the United States Congress, commonly known and spoken of as the Lower House, was withheld from The Telegram's "squib" in order that the editor of The Winston-Salem Journal might be forced to engage in the mental exercise of digging into the history of this country of the period of about sixteen years ago, for the purpose of learning the name of the last Democratic Speaker preceding Champ Clark. We know his name, brother. When you discover it, print it in the Journal, and if correct we will notify you.

The Colonel Laughs At His Critics.
"I am not an aspirant for anything, because I have had everything," Colonel Roosevelt told his Western friends in Spokane. "No other man alive has had such a good run for his money." The Colonel wishes it distinctly understood that he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for President. Some of our readers may recall the fact that he was President some years ago, and not only filled the place but enlarged it in every direction. He certainly did have a "corking good time" while he was in the White House; also before he became President; also since he left the Presidency.

"Fate cannot harm me—I have dined today," wrote Sydney Smith. And Colonel Roosevelt can afford to laugh at his critics and his enemies; they cannot harm him, because he asks nothing and is beyond the reach of defeat. Looking over his career from the time he shaved off his Harvard side whiskers and entered the New York Legislature, through the Cleveland-Blaine campaign, the Civil Service Commission, his exciting term as Police Commissioner of New York city, as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, as colonel of the "Rough Riders"; his service as Governor of New York, from which position he was kidnapped by Tom Platt and Mark Hanna and incarcerated in the Vice-Presidency; his escape therefrom into the position of President of the United States; his two terms, in which important policies, events and struggles crowded upon each other's heels; his spectacular hunt after big game in Africa; his triumphal tour through Europe—running the film through the memory it makes such a moving picture show as few men have presented in history. He certainly has had a "good run for his money."

Still, in the full vigor of manhood, he has no idea of being a mere looker-on at the game he plays so well. He must laugh in his sleeve at times at the bungling of amateur politicians, inexpert diplomats and statesmen who do not know their business. He must find it difficult to restrain himself from jumping into the thick of the contest and showing them how it should be played. The Colonel will still have a say in every question that comes up and is in a position to give the American people a deal of wholesome and disinterested advice and render them an important service.

"You have nothing I want, except your respect and good will," Mr. Roosevelt tells us; "and all I desire is, so far as the chance arises where I am able to do so, to help you in any movement for the good of our common country."

"What shall we do with our ex-Presidents?" is a question that need never be asked regarding the one ex-President, we now have with us. He is certain to find his own outlet for his tremendous activity and everlasting energy.—Philadelphia Record.

Debauching the Electorate in Charlotte.
There's a preacher in Charlotte who does not hesitate to cry out against the evils that afflict that city. In a sermon Sunday he severely arraigned the vote-buyer, who, he says, is worse than the vote-seller, and denounced the demagogues, who inflame the hearts of the poor by arraying them against the rich. More preachers like Dr. Hulten are needed, and in other cities than Charlotte. Dr. Hulten says last Tuesday's election in Charlotte was a day of excessive debauch, made so by election money and whiskey, used for prostituting manhood and perverting the ballot. It seems to be admitted on all sides that what Dr. Hulten said is true. Men who stand high in the community and who are considered men of higher character, seem to have forgotten themselves in the whirl and excitement of that memorable campaign, and did things of which no doubt they are now bitterly ashamed. The truth of the business is that politics makes fools of us all on nearly every campaign occasion. In our enthusiasm for our candidates and for the dear party we say and do things which compromise our manhood and decrease our self-respect. To what end? Most often to put men in office who are in no way superior to the men they displace, and to change parties only to find conditions not improved.—Concord Tribune.

Some Facts About Clouds.
The dimensions of single clouds, as far as the area covered by their base is concerned, vary, as anyone can see, from the cloud the size of a man's hand to that which covers the entire visible heavens; but the height of clouds can be observed more definitely and can be estimated with convincing accuracy, and it is this height that largely determines their contents and characteristics.

A great cumulus thunderhead, towering up on the horizon like a huge flamboyant iceberg, is often higher than the highest Alps would be if they were piled on top of the Himalayas.

It is not unusual for these clouds to measure five, six, or even eight miles or two above the world, to their rounded, glistening summit, splendid in the sunlight. And in these eight miles the changes of temperature are as great as those over many thousand miles of the earth's surface.

These clouds contain strata of temperature, narrow belts of freezing cold, alternating with large distances of rainy mist and frozen snow and ice particles.

Hailstorms, which are formed from a snow particle that falls from the upper strata and is frozen hard in the freezing belt and coated with added ice in the wet belt, are often found with a series of layers in their formation, showing that they have passed through this succession of cloud strata more than once on their way to the earth.

Very few people are aware how rapidly eggs absorb the odors of articles they are placed near, such as onions and kerosene. The shell is porous, and in a few hours the yolk will become tainted by near proximity to strong odors.

Freshly laid eggs that bring the highest prices to local customers are removed shortly after they are laid and are kept in a clean receptacle in a clean room.

Household Economy

Mildew in Linen.

The best way to remove mildew from linen is to mix equal parts of soft soap and powdered starch, half the quantity of table salt and as much lemon juice as will convert the ingredients into a thick paste. Cover the spots with the mixture and leave the linen exposed in the open air until the mildew is removed.

Washing New Flannel.

The flannel should be put into clean, cold water and kept there for a day or so, changing the water frequently. Wash it well in warm water, using a little soap to remove the oil. Flannel thus washed does not harden or shrink.

When Scrubbing Floors.

For scrubbing floors cold water is preferable to hot; it does not soak into the wood so readily, and consequently dries sooner. The scrubbing brush must always be moved up and down the boards according to the grain of the wood, and not across it.

Worth Knowing.

When cleaning copper or brass add a little turpentine to the polish; it will help to remove stains. For all stubborn stains use salt and vinegar first.

Turn the pillows on the sick bed often, and never allow them to get hot and uncomfortable. They should be shaken in the open air at least twice a day, but not be placed in the sun. Avoid jarring the patient when doing anything for his comfort.

A stained black coat can be quickly cleaned by applying to it with a sponge strong coffee to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. Finish the process by rubbing the coat with a piece of colored woolen material.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says:

"Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Howard Gardner.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Howard Gardner.

One Story Eclipsed.

"Hot in Brazil?" said the young man who had just returned from a trip to South America. "Well, I should say so. Do you know, for days at a time we couldn't take our after dinner siesta on account of the peculiar noises."

"What noises?" asked the blond stenographer innocently.

"Why, the coffee popping on the trees. You see, the sun was so hot the grains just roasted before they were picked."

The old traveler yawned.

"Rather warm down there, bub," he rejoined laconically, "but when I was down there you couldn't sleep at night. Every once in awhile there would sound the most extraordinary crackling noise that ever fell upon the human ear."

"What were the sounds, Mr. Bings?" And Mr. Bings yawned again and replied, "The rubber trees stretching themselves." Chicago News.

When a Dog Chokes.

Dogs frequently choke. A bone, a nail or a piece of tin gets in the throat, and there is great danger of death before the arrival of the surgeon. Many of them do die, but there is no reason for this, for it is easy, without the slightest danger of getting bitten, to put the hand in the mouth of a dog and to draw out or push down the obstruction that is choking it. A bandage—a handkerchief or towel will do—is passed between the teeth and over the upper jaw, and in a similar way another bandage is passed between the teeth and over the under jaw. One person holding the ends of these two bandages, keeps the dog's mouth wide open. A second person can then with perfect ease and safety put his fingers down the animal's throat and relieve it.

Handling a Haddock.

"There is no better place than a fish market to pick up queer superstitions," said a restaurant proprietor. "The other day I held up a fine specimen of haddock. The dealer, who was an Italian, nearly choked on the bunch of Neapolitan explosives that rushed into his throat.

"Never, no, nevare take up haddock so," he said.

"How?" I asked.

"By the head, so your fingers touch those dark spots on each side of the head," he said. "The curse fall on you if you do."

"Whose curse?" said I.

"St. Petaire's," said he. "St. Petaire gave the haddock those dark spots. They are his finger prints. He catch haddock just so in the sea of Galilee, and every haddock born since then has shown those same marks. Let go."

"And I did let go. Of course I did not believe it, but when I found that half the fish dealers in that market did believe I deemed it prudent to handle haddock by the body or tail."—New York Sun.

Slaves of the Russian Passport.

A peasant leaves his home to seek work as a field laborer wherever he can find work to do, and, like every Russian, male and female, he takes his passport with him, which is quite as much a part of him as his soul is.

It is always a half yearly passport, which he must renew at the end of six months, sending it home in a registered letter to an official at his native place and inclosing the legal fee and something over for the trouble.

NEWS OF SPORTS

PATRIOTS ARE GOING TO GET BUSY AT ONCE

Open With Mount Pleasant College This Afternoon—Meet Danville at Cone Park—Next Week Play in Lynchburg and Danville—Team Showing Good Form.

The Greensboro Patriots are to meet the strong team from Mount Pleasant College, Concord, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Cone park. The teams are pretty well matched, according to reports received regarding the visitors and a hard fought game is to be expected. The admission will be 25 cents and if the weather is good a large crowd will no doubt go out to witness the game.

President Brandt has arranged for games, Thursday and Friday with the Danville team of the Virginia league. The Danville team has each season played one or more practice games on the local diamond and usually a good article of ball is put up. These games will give the fans an opportunity to see how the local players show up alongside players of their class. The games will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the admission will be 25 cents.

On Saturday and Monday Manager Doyle will play Lynchburg in Lynchburg and on Tuesday will play Danville on the Tobacconists' grounds. This will make half a dozen practice games in quick succession and the Patriots will be pretty well whipped into shape by the time they return home. It is possible that one or more practice games will be arranged for the local diamond after the team returns from the Virginia trip.

GAMES COMING THICK AND FAST.

According to the present schedule the fans of Greensboro will have an opportunity of witnessing a ball game each afternoon this week. The Patriots hold forth for the next three days and on Saturday Guilford meets the University of North Carolina here. On Monday Davidson and Guilford will contest for the supremacy of the diamond at Cone Park. These teams always put up a fine article of college ball and the games will no doubt be largely attended.

West Lee Defeated Ashe Street.
West Lee street defeated the Ashe street team yesterday afternoon by the score of 16 to 8. The batteries were for West Lee, Shepard, McIlhenny and Paschal; Ashe street, Pleasants and Cole.

BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP.
McGraw picks New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for the four first division clubs of the National Scramble.

Some "inside baseball" dore was impeded to Boston's hopes by Manager Tenney. They were taught that it is not always best to bunt with men on first and second and none out. Far better, if the opponents are obviously expecting a bunt, is ball hit hard to the left, kept on the ground. Again with a man on second and none out, the play is not necessary to bunt. A good right fielder can as well advance the runner, with a chance of getting to first himself, by slapping a high-bounding ball for the second baseman to handle, if he can.

There is some noise to the Boston National's new road togs. Dark blue and white is the general color scheme, but the blue sweaters are all lit up with red trimmings.

Christy Mathewson is thirty years old. He was born at Factoryville, Pa., and his first professional playing was done at Honesdale, Pa. He went to New York from the Norfolk, Va., club in 1900.

If the Boston Nationals wish to sell "Peaches" Graham, they will find a ready market, for the catcher would more than make good with a first-class pitching staff and good handlers of throws about the bases.

The Boston National management has at last heard direct from Pitcher Cecil Ferguson. The fellow says he does not intend to report, and that he will stick to the plumbing supply business, unless the club gives him his figure. President Russell says "Fergy" is the least of his trouble at present.

The Boston Americans will miss Jake Stahl sorely. It was said that when Jake met a ball squarely, he hit it harder and faster than ever Larry Lajoie.

Since Tris Speaker made his first appearance in 'Frisco with the Boston Red Sox the natives have been talking of little else. The Texan has not been feeling well since he struck California, but he has his legs under him, his eye on the ball, and plenty of "pepper." He got three hits in five times up, a home run, a three-bagger, and a single, while his three catches were corkers.

Harry Davis looks like a two-year-old this season. He is spry and fields better than he has in many moons.

First Baseman George Stovall has been showing great form in practice in Alexandria, where the Cleveland team is training. He has been appointed captain of the team.

Pitchers Toney and Griffen, First Baseman Sauer, and Third Baseman Doyle are four Cubs that have survived the test of the training trip and will be retained.

Jiggs Donahue, who failed to "come back," is said to be likely to land as manager of the Grand Rapids team this season. Minneapolis has a claim, but likely will waive.

Manager Frank, of the New Orleans team, is trying to land Walter Doane, of the Naps, but no agreement has been reached. Doane does not want to play in the South, and his wishes may be consulted.

Kaler is pitching grand ball for Cleveland on the Southern trip. This boy looks like one of the best young pitchers of the last two seasons.

Joe Jackson is being ticketed as a dead one already and some pitchers are declaring that he can't hit them near, fair, in, or out.

It will take some very deep thinking before Hal Chase can decide on his opening day line-up. Birdie Cree, who is tearing things up with the Yannigans on the northward trip, is yet to be figured in some place, goodness knows where, when Chase himself does not.

Harry Krause is leading a new slant. He uses a cross between the knuckle ball and the drop. It hops at the plate, rising.

Martsel is as busy as a bee in left field in the Athletics' batting practice. He knows that three men are after his position.

More and More.

The gravedigger in "Hamlet" was a very witty man, wittier far than many of the epitaph makers who have adorned headstones with their jingles. A sample of the punning rhymes which are cut on tombs follows. It comes from the grave of William More, at Stepney, near London:

Here lies one More, and no more than he

Why, one More and no more may lie here alone,

But here lies one More, and that's more than one.

CURIOSITIES OF ETYMOLOGY.
It is extraordinary how words for the same thing differ even so small a country as England. Take "left handed," for example. In Gloucestershire such person is described as "scrarmy." In Staffordshire he becomes "craggy," the phrase for a left-handed Yorkshireman is "gawkroger" or "callic hand," and in the next county, Durham, he is "cuddy paw."—London Telegraph.

Experience Teaches.
"I wonder what has happened to Mr Green?" said Mrs. Brown to a lady friend. "He seems so dismal now, and he used to be a practical joker!"

"Ah," was the response, "he proposed as a joke to his present wife she accepted him, and he says he will never indulge in a joke again."

A PRANK OF THE TYPES.
A sentimental novelist, describing his heroine as one who "always kept modestly in the background," was horrified to find it recorded in print that she "always kept modesty in the background."

As Usual.
"So your Shakespeare club is a great success?"

"Yes. We have accumulated enough fines for nonattendance to take us all to a musical comedy."—Washington Herald.

Naturally.
A girl feels flattered when told she looks well in anything, but a wife thinks such a compliment only a plot to get her to wear old clothes.

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.

Constipation causes headache, nausea, dizziness, languor, heart palpitation. Drastic purges gripe, sicken, weaken the bowels and don't cure. Doan's Regulates act gently and cure constipation 98 cents. Ask your druggist.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.
What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its gloom, in the height of its blooming glory, that a cancer had got to its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of people, but thanks to the investigations of scientists, we now know to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Hericide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Hericide Co., Detroit, Mich.

IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

(By D. V. FRANCIS.)
Special to The Telegram.

New York, April 11.—The Men and Religious Forward Movement is getting ready to invade the metropolitan District and to stir up the men of the church as they never have been stirred up. The object of the movement is to bring the church and church men into direct touch with social and civic work; to make the churches a living vital force in the life of the community.

The organizations participating in the movement are: The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, the Baptist brotherhood, the Congregational Brotherhood of America, the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ, the Gideons (commercial travelers), the International Sunday School Association, the International committee of Young Men's Christian Associations, the Lutheran Brotherhood, the Methodist Brotherhood. The Otterbein Brotherhood, the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the United Presbyterian Brotherhood.

Four great conferences have already been held. These have been at Buffalo, Chicago, Nashville and Kansas City.

Moving from the four great centers where the four conferences have been held, the work has spread out and even the fringe of Canada has been touched. The plans for the future are to push the work all through Canada, along the Pacific coast and in this section of the country.

But that will not be the end of the work. It will only be the beginning. Once the entire country has been enlightened as to the movement and instructed in its purposes, will remain the perpetuation of that work; and that perpetuation will be done by the church themselves.

It is not the purpose to drag the church into partisan politics but it is sought to place the Christian sentiment of the community effectively behind all movements for civic righteousness and for the uplift of humanity. As one of the leaders of the movement puts it our object is to apply Christianity to every day life.

The French Episcopal Church, New York, began on April 1st, the support of the Rev. Abel Rouffineau, in Saintes, France. Thus maintained, it is expected that he will reopen two and possibly three abandoned Huguenot churches. Efforts are making to induce other French Protestant congregations in America to take up the maintenance of French pastors, and so enable them to reopen more closed churches. The reason for these closed churches, Catholic and Protestant, is the recent separation law. This law did not close the churches, but it did cut off the salaries of ministers. Catholic and Protestant alike, from any advantage from the State for religious purposes and in the cases of the Catholic clergy, from salaries as government employees. The people have not been trained to give as in English-speaking countries, at least not for maintenance of public worship, and so churches in thousands of instances have had to be closed. Many have been re-opened by the efforts of French people themselves. Many others have not been. Hence the movement to secure help from outside. The New York congregation mentioned, now Episcopal, was originally French Huguenot, and is one of the oldest churches in the city.

In June, Baptists of the world are to meet in Philadelphia. There are millions of them, one of the largest bodies of Christians in the world. The principal meeting is called the Baptist World Alliance. With this alliance will be held, on preceding or succeeding dates, the sessions of the Northern Baptist convention and meetings of missionary and other large Baptist interests. The high honor of President of the World Alliance is in the balance. The name of the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, of New York, has been proposed and endorsed in New England, in the West, and spoken well of in England. Southern Baptists, are however rising to say that they have met for the honor, and that it belongs to them for the double reason that they have not yet had it, and within the limits of the Southern Baptist Convention are two-thirds of the Baptists of the whole United States.

English and Continental Baptists, who are coming to Philadelphia in numbers, concede the honor to an American. Southern Baptist leaders mention no names, but rest their cases on the rotation principle. To this alliance meeting are coming Russian Baptist ministers, their way paid by Americans.

The following are the topics for discussion at the Church Congress in Washington, April 25-28, inclusive: "The Value of Protestantism," "Woman's Suffrage as Affecting Our Religious and Educational Institutions," "The seat of authority in Church Government," "The Jesus Christ of the Gospels and of Theology," "The necessity for Comity in Christian Missions," "The need for Prayer Book Revision to Meet Present

Day Conditions, "The Place of Meditation in the Development of Christian Character."

It is authoritatively announced, and said to be intended especially for possible pilgrims and other visitors from the United States to Rome this year, that the Pope desires Catholics and non-Catholics not to participate in the official receptions that may be given at the Quirinal or in the capital if they expect to be received in audience by him. The present year the Holy See will observe as a year of mourning, and no great functions will be held in St. Peters or the Vatican. It is declared to be certain that Pius X. will not accord audiences even to Catholics this year except in very limited numbers.

Americans and Englishmen are trading famous pulpits. At the moment the Rev. J. H. Jowett, of Birmingham, accepts the foremost pulpit in the Presbyterian church in America, the Fifth Avenue, New York; the Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Chicago, is invited to the pastorate of Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, the greatest Baptist pulpit in England, in many respects in the world. An egg-shaped auditorium seating 5,000, the pulpit in the first balcony, the Tabernacle is located in a residence section to the South of the Thames, visited every year by thousands of strangers, and one of the religious focus points of the world. The Rev. Dr. Dixon, coming of a Baptist family of preachers long famous throughout the South, is pastor of Moody's church in Chicago. It is Congregational, and over the question of Baptism the same controversy arose as arose when the Rev. F. B. Meyer, a Baptist, went to a London Congregational church, and arises now when the Rev. Dr. C. F. Aked, a Baptist, goes to a San Francisco Congregational church. Each provided a baptistry, continued immersion himself but let an assistant sprinkle such as were satisfied with that form. If the Rev. Dr. Dixon transfers now from Chicago to London, he will go to an orthodox Baptist church—that is, he will return to his own. It is reckoned that he will go.

Pastoral salaries in London are small when compared with Chicago. A London pastor who received $3,000 a year is near the top. In great cities of America he is near the bottom.

Going Too Far.

A certain well known composer now in the full vigor of his established reputation was at one time when he was comparatively unknown engaged in writing the music for a production gathered by two managers who knew exactly what they wanted, in addition to knowing next to nothing of the musical classics. After having burned much midnight oil and worked himself into a state of semicollapse in a vain endeavor to produce a finale which would please them the composer took up page after page of rejected manuscript and in despair took to the theater an entire section of "Faust" to which he had somehow managed to fit the words assigned to him. He played it over, and one of the managers said quite unfeelingly, "Well, Gus, the others were pretty bad, but this one is the rottenest of them all." "So?" remarked the weary musician dryly. "It was considered good when Ground wrote it!"—Metropolitan Magazine.

Goldsboro and Durham for the "internal improvement" reduced freight rate on brick shipments Goldsboro to Durham to remain in force until August 1 instead of being discontinued April 1 as the commission has ordered. Major H. L. Grant, for the Goldsboro Brick Works, appeared in advocacy of the rate. Also H. Weil, of Goldsboro. Appearing against it were J. S. Manning, and Mr. Strudwick, of Hillsboro. The opposition indicated willingness to exempt all pending contracts from the effects of the April 15 order but the commission holds that it could not make such exception. The commission decided to adhere to its original order for the "internal improvement" rate to pass out April 15.

Asheville Bad Man Saw Governor.

W. P. Black, the notorious Asheville man, whom Governor Kitchin pardoned some months ago from 9 months of service on the roads for maintaining a disorderly house in Asheville, was here today for a conference with the governor relative to charges that are being made against him from Hendersonville as to his having an interest in a near-beer place that is a blind tiger. He is under $1,000 bond for good behavior and insists that he has nothing to do with the Hendersonville place. He insists that it is his sons and that he is out west and has an agreement duly signed that there shall be no liquor sold in it and that if there should be those in actual charge shall be personally responsible for it. Black was wearing Prince Albert coat and white vest and one state official who had business with the governor while Black was in the executive office, mistook him for a minister of the gospel. Black made a personal explanation of the situation and the Hendersonville affair to the governor and returned to the eastern section of the state this evening.

Geological Survey Report.

The report of the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey for the past two years, by Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist, is just from the State printers, bound in substantial book form. The report gives a working staff of forty-four people employed for all or part of their time. For the regular staff there are ten specialists. Then there are six specialists engaged as geologists investigating coastal plain resources; seven as topographers, 11 as assistants in road engineering, two as chemists, five stenographers and three office assistants. In much of the work of the department there is cooperation between the state board and the United States Geological Survey. The report gives prominent place to the good roads developments in the state, setting out the progress and routes of all the principal road building schemes now under way or outlined. These include The Crest of the Blue Ridge Highway; Capital to Capital Route, National Highway, Charlotte, Asheville, Knoxville Highway; Salisbury-Asheville Highway; Charlotte-Wilmington Highway, and the Triangular Highway, the latter being the proposed road from Pinehurst, via Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, then back to Pinehurst via High Point, Biscoe and West End.

WINE

Growers of France Aroused---Destroy Thousands Bottles of Champagne.

By Publishers' Press.
Epernay, France, April 11.—As a result of a recent law affecting wine growers two thousand wrathful wine growers today marched through the valley of Marne, wrecking wine cellars and smashing hundreds of thousands of bottles of champagne.

At Dizy two hundred and fifty thousand bottles of champagne were smashed and the cellars ruined. Barrels were formed of flasks and red flags raised in the breeze.

The French state today adopted a resolution modifying the recent law limiting the districts in which wine shall be designated as champagne.

MAY PLAY FINAL GAME OF U. N. C.-U. VA. SERIES HERE

The final game of the series between the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia will not be played in Charlottesville, Va., as scheduled, but will be played either in Charlotte or Greensboro, with the chances in favor of the latter city.

The baseball fans of Greensboro and the eastern section of the state are enthusiastic over the chance of the game coming to Greensboro, and a determined effort will be made to have the teams decide the championship on the Cone park diamond. The Carolina manager has already announced his preference for Greensboro and as soon as Mr. Nash, manager of the Virginia squad, is heard from the matter will be settled.

The managers of the two teams got together in Charlotte Monday night and decided that it would be bad judgment, from a financial standpoint, to play the game either at Charlottesville or Chapel Hill as the attendance at either Charlottesville or Greensboro would be far better than at the home grounds of the universities. They also decided to play the game on Saturday, April 22, instead of on Friday, April 21, as scheduled.

As soon as Greensboro heard of this decision the fans began to move and consequently when No. 36 arrived yesterday, bringing in the victorious Tar Heels, Manager McCulloch was met by a number of fans and the advantages of playing the game here were set forth. A comparison of gate receipts showed that in Greensboro on Saturday, despite the bad weather, just $3 was received above the amount take in in Charlotte Monday when the weather was considered ideal for ball. It is safe to estimate that had the weather been fair Saturday nearly a thousand dollars in excess of the amount received would have been taken in. Then too, the railroad facilities in Greensboro are such that special trains can be run here from Chapel Hill and Charlottesville, returning the night of the same day. If the game is played in Charlotte this will not be possible. And again the railroad fare for the players from here to Charlotte and return will meet their expenses while in the city, special rates having been offered by the hotels as an inducement.

In addition to the fact that students from the two universities can attend the game if played here, Greensboro is more accessible from points in Virginia and eastern North Carolina, while it is nearly as accessible as Charlotte from many western points.

Dr. W. A. Lambert, of the Virginia University faculty, was called up by long distance phone yesterday afternoon and the proposition placed before him. He requested that the facts be set forth in writing and mailed him and he would take the matter up with the Virginia team management and an answer would be available sometime today. It is believed, however, that the decision will be in Greensboro's favor.

In case the game is played here it is understood that extra bleachers will be erected for the use of the students that will come here from Charlottesville. There is one set of bleachers that can be used by the Carolina students and an additional set would accommodate half a hundred or more Virginia students. It is quite probable that temporary bleachers will be arranged to seat the large crowd that will be present. The fact that this game will decide the championship this year makes it all the more interesting and will be witnessed by the largest crowd ever assembled on a diamond in North Carolina.

TARIFF

Schedules Will Receive Attention of House as Soon as Reciprocity Bill is Passed.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 11.—The Democrats in caucus tonight adopted their legislative policy, which provides that the Canadian reciprocity tariff agreement shall be the first legislation launched on the floor of the House by the Democratic members. This will be followed by a bill providing for the farmers free list. As soon as the committee on ways and means can get them whittled into shape other tariff bills, revising downward the woolen, cotton textiles, and steel schedules, will be introduced in the House. It is stated to-night that the reciprocity bill and free list bill will be ready for introduction Thursday, it being the intention of the Democrats to push these bills through with as little delay as possible and send them immediately to the Senate for action.

Endorses S. H. Boyd for Mayor of City

To the Voters of Greensboro:

Heretofore I have not taken an active part in the elections of Greensboro, but have always been alive to what I consider to be for the best interests of the city.

We are now approaching the first election under the Commission Form of Government. Its success or failure depends entirely upon the men elected, therefore it is the duty of every citizen to lay aside personal preferences, and vote for the man best qualified to fill the position. Among the candidates for Mayor and Commissioner of Public Accounts and Finances is Mr. S. H. Boyd, and I feel the citizens are very fortunate in having the opportunity of voting for a man so excellently equipped and qualified to fill this office. Examine his record as an alderman and chairman of the finance committee, and I am sure you will agree that he is the man for the office.

Respectfully,
W. L. CLEMENT.

Negro Laymen Organize.

Representatives of the leading negro churches of the city met last night at Providence Baptist church and formed a permanent organization to be known as The Layman's Council of Greensboro. The object of the council is to cooperate with the Ministerial Union to promote Christian work and growth in the churches of the negro race and among the people generally. The committee upon permanent organization through Rev. J. G. Walker, of St. James Presbyterian church, submitted a constitution which was adopted unanimously. The following officers were elected:

President, W. D. Koiner, of Trinity A. M. E. Z. church; vice president, W. M. Station, of Shiloh Baptist church; secretary, James B. Dudley, of Bethel A. M. E. church; treasurer, R. L. Alexander, of St. James Presbyterian church.

Quite a number of ministers were present and assisted in the organization of the council. All felt that there was important work in church membership, church finance, charity, civic improvement and sanitation that this council can and should do.

The next meeting will be held at Providence Baptist church April 25, 1911.
